

SIFAKIS NIKOS

Born in Heraklion, Crete

Graduate of Electrical Engineer's department at Technological Institute of Heraklion. He has studied/specialized in California, USA in wind energy technology for wind parks needs located in Greece where he is supervisor engineer supervisor since 1998 (ex ENRON Wind property). Graduate of MBA

Founder and CEO of AENAOS Energy Systems (since 2002).

AENAOS has business activity in Greece, Cyprus, Bulgaria and countries of Africa. AENAOS has constructed plenty of photovoltaic stations and various R.E.S. systems, designs mini grid systems, provides operation and maintenance in wind parks (MW scale), constructs and imports relevant products for off-grid applications. He has worked as scientific associate at Electrical Engineers' department of Heraklion Technological Institute in academic years 2008 - '09, 2009 – '10. He is also technical consultant at various energy studies or renewable projects for local municipalities and other organizations.

He served as vice president of "Panhellenic Photovoltaic Association" (ΠΑ.ΣΥ.Φ.).

He is member of Board of Directors of "Hellenicafrican Chamber of Commerce and Development".

Member of Board of Directors of "Heraklion Chamber of Commerce and Industry"

Member of Board of Directors of "Energy Cluster of RES companies".